

Introduction to Contemporary India

A Short Online Course for International Students

Were your plans to come and study in India put on hold due to COVID 19? Are you thinking of coming to India for studies or visit in future? Are you curious to know more about India? Then this is a course for you!

This course presents a vignette of a rapidly changing, complex and highly diverse Indian society. Students will be exposed to key themes and debates relevant to present day India such as Indian economy, caste and tribes, India's development, environment, migration and human rights, gender and feminism.

Who can sign up?

It is an introductory level course, so it is open to anyone who is interested in India.

What will you learn?

Some of the main socio-economic, cultural and political dynamics at play in contemporary India. You will develop a foundational understanding of Indian society

Course will be delivered online by TISS faculties over seven sessions.

Upon completion of the course, students will receive a digital certificate of participation from IRO.

Duration: 2 weeks (17-26 November 2020)

Cost: Registration fee 20 USD

Course type: Noncredited course

To sign up please fill up the registration form and we will send you further details.

Registration form

Have more questions? Please contact: iro.csip@tiss.edu

